

What does a student need in order to log into a test?

The Student will need the Secure Browser installed on their testing machine. Once the Secure Browser has been installed, the student will need their First Name, SSID, and the test session number (generated by the TA).